ONLINE TRAINING FOR ORGANIZATIONS

Bring a Beck Institute training program to your team, anywhere in the world.

ABOUT OUR VIRTUAL TRAINING AND WORKSHOPS

Beck Institute offers a variety of remote training options, from small group consultations conducted over the phone and online, to multi-week online courses, to live, interactive virtual workshops conducted by expert faculty.
Beck Institute staff and faculty have years of experience in providing state-of-the-art CBT training remotely. In keeping with our commitment to excellence and best practice, virtual workshops for organizations are conducted by expert faculty and are designed to be interactive, engaging, and effective. Our dedicated staff monitor and provide technical support to trainees throughout each workshop. Participants consistently report that Beck Institute workshops are transformative for their careers, providing practical tools and strategies in a convenient, user-friendly format.

Beck Institute training will help your staff learn practical, evidence-based, cognitive and behavioral techniques that they can implement immediately.
